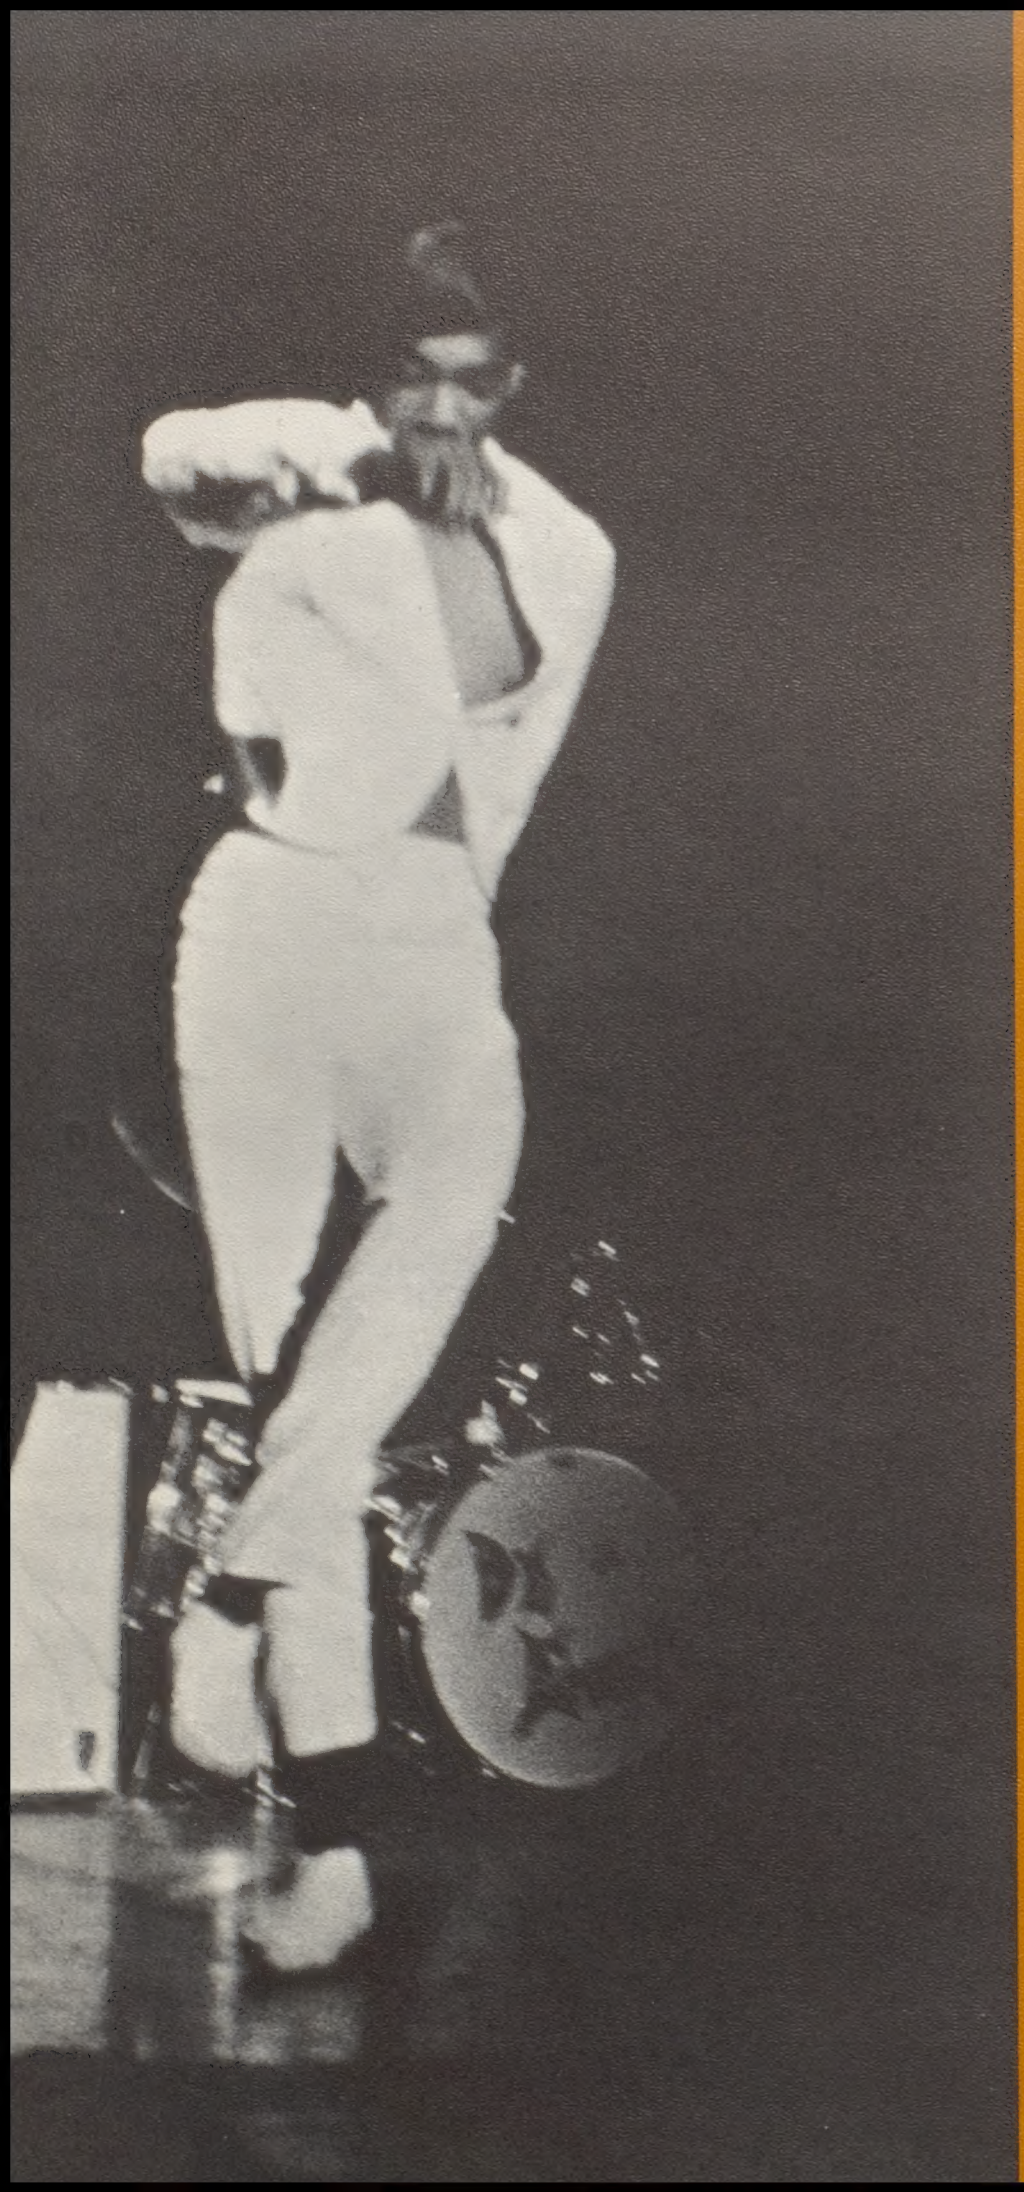
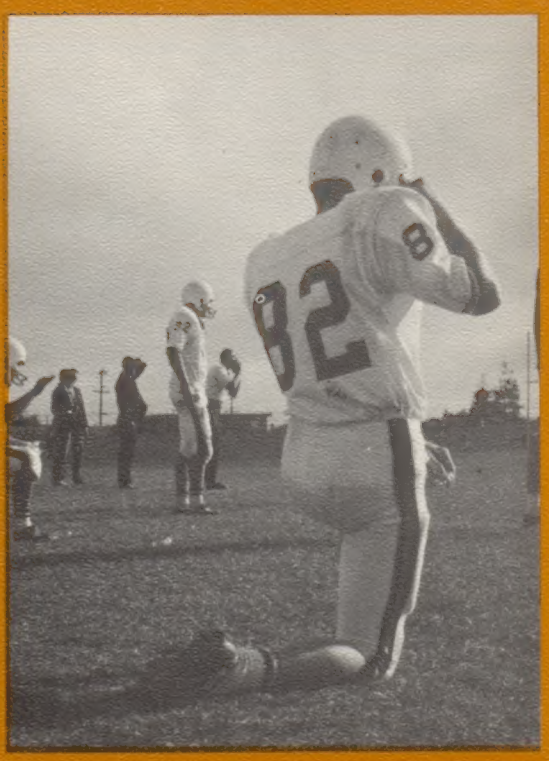
Behind these pillars...



We, in a variety of ways, work to fufill our ambitions and express our personal interests.



Here is the 1967 ACORN,
a record of these efforts and experiences.

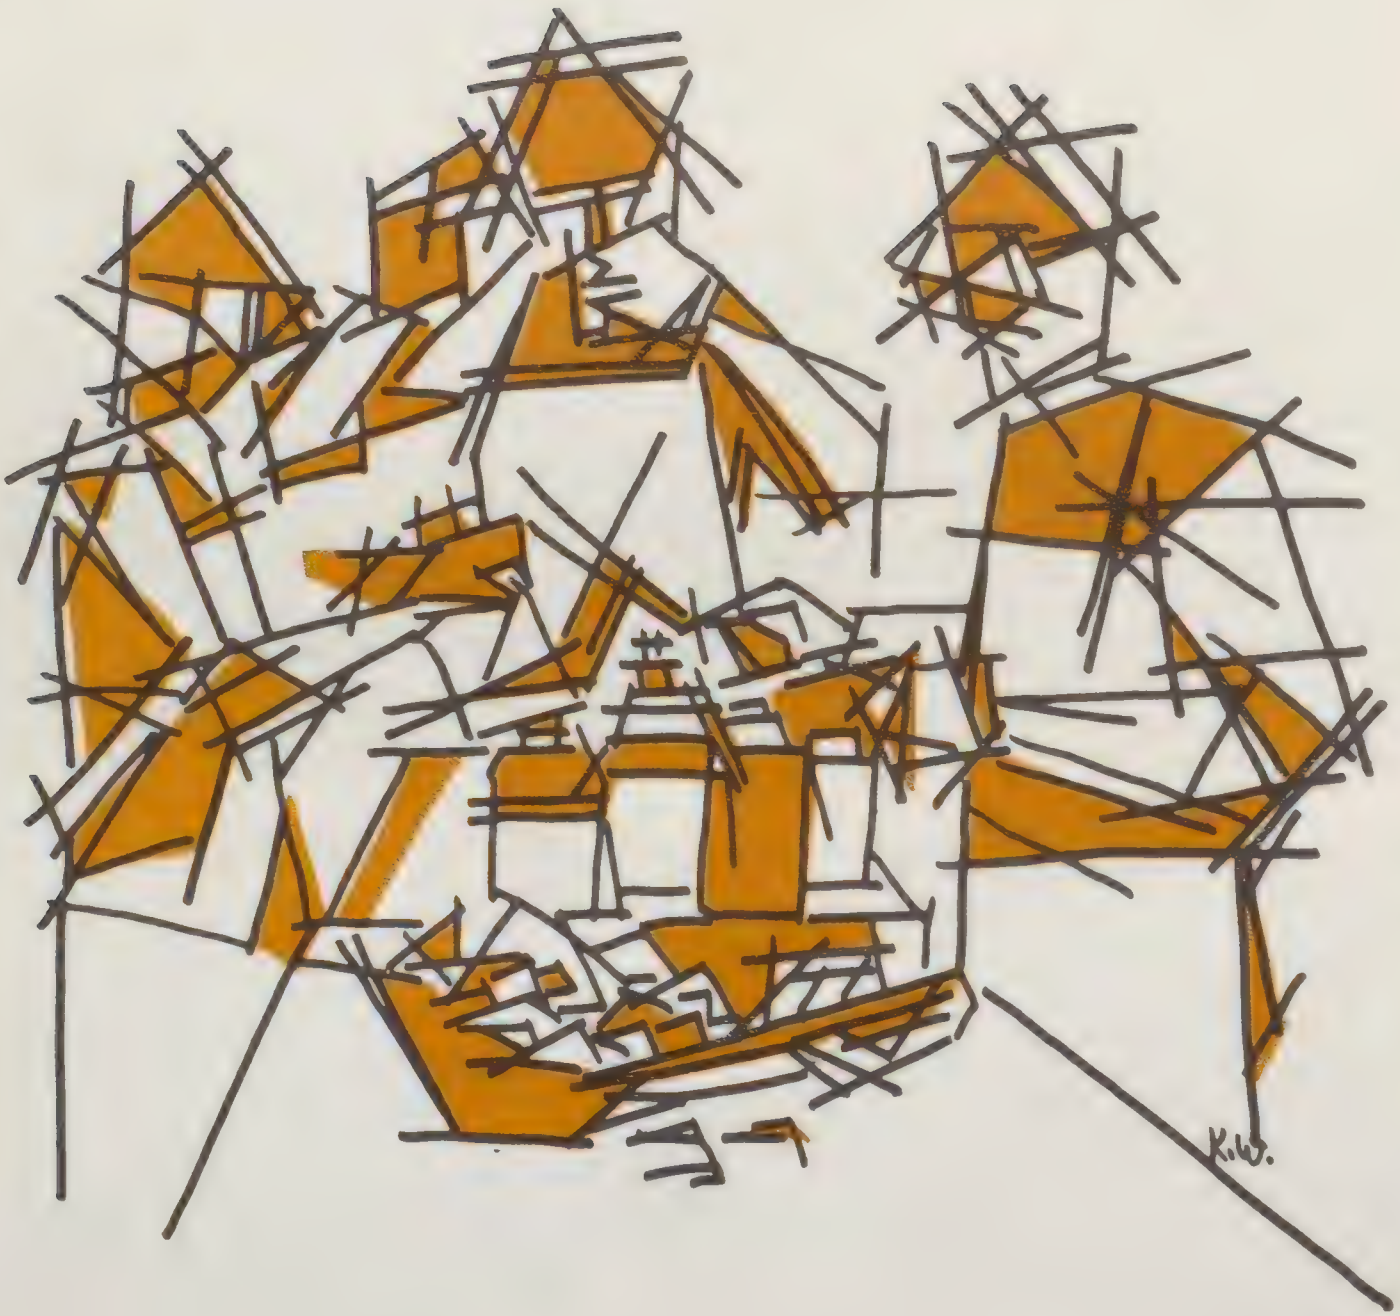
ADMINISTRATION



AND ACADEMIC LIFE

Chemistry students Rosemarie Dare, Sheryl Hiatt and Mike Miller measure acids to be used in testing for hydrogen gas.

Board Opens Two New Schools

A major Alameda Board of Education project was the opening of two newly constructed schools, the Will C. Wood School and Chipman School.

Wood School, which drew students from five elementary schools, was opened February 24, and dedicated April 17. The school includes grades 5-8.

Opening on March 27 was the Chipman School, which covers grades 6-8 and has an attendance of 625 students.

Students from Paden, Muir, and Longfellow were moved to the new school. This move eliminated double sessions at the respective schools.

The Board of Education has a staff of 600 employees. Under its administration are two high schools and elementary schools, which have a total enrollment of 11,400 students. Also under the Board's supervision is a childcare center and an adult night school program.

Seated is Mr. Donald Roderick, superintendent of schools. Standing are Mr. Charles Briscoe, assistant superintendent, and Mr. Harold Eifert, assistant superintendent.

Two Principals Serve Alameda High This Year

For personal health reasons, Principal Ralph Cioffi requested a leave of absence at the end of the fall semester. During the spring term, Mr. Donald Bell, principal of Encinal High School, served as acting principal.

Mr. Cioffi attended Tennessee and New Jersey military academies before attending San Francisco State, where he received his B. A. degree, and later the University of California, where he obtained a Master of Arts degree in history.

He formerly held teaching and administrative positions at various Alameda elementary schools, including the vice-principalship of Haight School and the principalships of Haight and Longfellow Schools, before becoming principal of Alameda High School in 1964. Mr. Cioffi has been an active participant in community affairs and with several organizations, including Rotary and Masons.

The Acorn staff and student body wish Mr. Cioffi a speedy return to good health, and express appreciation for his dedicated service and exemplary leadership.

Mr. Bell is a graduate of Piedmont High School and the University of California where he received his B.A. and his Master's degrees. Before becoming principal of Encinal in 1959, he was Alameda's vice-principal for 17 years. He spent the fall '66 semester on sabbatical leave, traveling in Europe to study educational systems there. A past president of the Alameda Kiwanis Club, he also serves on the Board of Directors of the California Interscholastic Federation.

Mr. Bell talks to a few students at a swim meet.

After the Alameda-Encinal football game, Mayor William Godfrey congratulates Mr. Cioffi.

Mr. Bell and Dr. Snell admire the cover of the Acorn.

Computer

Vice-Principals Mrs. Helen Hoeksema and Dr. James Snell and Dean of Students Barry Conner found many changes in their duties this year.

This year, Dr. Snell handled scheduling of students through computer programing, relieving some of the clerical load on faculty members. Prior to the computer programing all of the schedules were done by hand by advisors, counselors and Dr. Snell's office. The computer also handled printing names and classes on report cards.

Next year AHS is planning to use another computer in the attendance office.

Other changes this year came in discipline and attendance duties. Mr. Conner handled only the boys' discipline and attendance, while Mrs. Hoeksema took over the girls'.

Dr. Snell reads up on data processing.

Mrs. Hoeksema and her trusty assistant, Mrs. Janice Gallagher, are interrupted.

Counseling: Study, Work, and

Mr. Robert Bartley, head counselor, talks to a parent while attending to student programming.

While working with students, counselors concerned themselves with educational, vocational, and social guidance.

Several tests were administered to AHS students by the counseling office. These included the SAT for seniors, the PSAT and Senior Math Test for juniors, Lodge-Thorndike Intelligence Tests for sophomores, and three sub-tests given to freshmen to prepare them for their sophomore tests. In addition to these, juniors took the National Merit Tests.

Offered again this year was the work-experience program for students who were prescreened by the counselors. Upon recommendation to employers, the students were given jobs in the labor field.

Mrs. Charlotte Howell finds a light moment in the counseling room.

Now, what did you do with that record, Mr. Whyte?

Safe Driving Taught

MR. EDWARD AYRES

"Your life depends upon whether or not you learn," according to Mr. Edward Ayres, one of the drivers' training instructors.

Mr. Ayres taught behind-the-wheel training along with Mr. Dennis Hennessee and Mr. David Kracl. Mr. Leland Stanford handled the classroom instruction.

Under this program every student receives six hours of behind the wheel driving and thirty hours of classroom instruction.

The purpose of the course is to give students a knowledge of driving and to give them an idea on how to drive safely.

Mr. Ayres tells his students, "When you get behind the wheel, you place your life in the hands of the other driver on the highway; he in turn places his life in your hands, and if you just once are negligent, then you could lose your life, or cause someone else to lose his life."

A highlight of this year's English Department program was a trip to San Francisco to see the National Reperatory Theatre's "A Touch of the Poet" by juniors and seniors of regular English and Humanities classes.

A variety of field trips to plays and concerts, including the Stanford Reperatory Theatre's "Antony and Cleopatra," and several electronic sound concerts, were taken by the Humanities classes. In addition, the Humanities classes were presented a program of poetry readings by guest speakers from the San Francisco Poetry Center.

Now in its second year, the Humanities course differs from the standard English class in that literature is related to the history and culture of a certain period.

Along with this course, this year's English program included a regular four year course in English. Each year's studies included literature, reading, writing, grammar, vocabulary, and oral composition. The department taught the four grades on a spiral program, which is based on the principle that a student's previous year of English has prepared him for his next.

"New Math" is Taught

Mrs. Sally Gallagher explains boardwork to her geometry students.

Math Department activities this year included further implementation of the "new math" and participation in a national math test.

On March 9, 180 algebra, advanced algebra, and trigonometry students participated in a national math test. The test, sponsored by the Math Department, involved problems in algebra one, algebra two, geometry, and trigonometry.

The department taught math students by the "new math approach." New books, which use this concept, were used by Math AB, freshmen algebra, and trigonometry and math analysis classes.

In addition to the regular history courses—California history, world history, U. S. history, and government—the history department added a new subject, current events.

A pilot course, its subject matter is the study of world events and understanding their significance. The course is open to seniors and juniors who are good readers.

Students who are enrolled in current events discuss news events, follow newscasts and read books and magazines as background material for the course. Many films are seen.

California history students performed skits depicting the gold rush in the Little Theatre. According to Mr. David George, the class plans a weekend trip to the Mother Lode country for next year.

Many Trips to Students

Earth and General Science students were given the opportunity to see the Lick Observatory at Mt. Hamilton. The observatory, which is operated by the University of California, enabled students to see the moon through a twelve-inch refractor and Saturn through a thirty-six-inch refractor.

In December, science students went to the San Francisco Bay Model. Here, students were able to see an actual model operated by the Army Corps of Engineers.

In addition to the above trips, science students toured the Oakland Weather Station. Weather instruments and weather reports from foreign countries were seen and heard by students.

Chemistry students were invited by the department to go to the International Science Fair in San Francisco. Students saw science exhibits and heard Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg, Nobel Prize winner, speak.

Another trip taken by chemistry students was an excursion to the C and H Sugar Refinery. The students, invited by the chemistry club, saw a film at the refinery and also toured the plant.

Chemistry students had the opportunity to attend a series of special lectures in physics, chemistry and biology at the Lawrence Hall of Science at the University of California. The lectures, titled "The Science of Musical Sounds," "Energetic and Sleepy Molecules," and "The Biology of Space" were presented by the University faculty members.

Music Dept. Performs at Student Body Meetings

Fine Arts students participated in a variety of activities this year.

The Art Department has a four-year program to provide variety for the art students. First-year art students are taught the basic fundamentals of art while second and third year students are concerned with working in the third dimension and in learning to work in commercial art. The advanced art students work as they choose in a studio atmosphere art class.

Students interested in music are provided with a variety of courses at Alameda High in which to further their interests.

Under the direction of Mrs. Carol Cederleaf, student voices are trained in Girls' Glee, Concert Chorale, Choir and Vocal Ensemble.

With the addition of wind and percussion instruments, the orchestra played at the Senior Play, All School Play, Pops Concert and Graduation. Through daily practice and technical study, the students improved their skills in performance.

The Advanced Band entertained at football games and student body meetings this year. The students gained an appreciation for music through their playing, and they also found that performing was an important outlet.

The stage band is composed of members of the advanced band with the exception of a few. They meet twice a week during "O" period. The fifteen members played dance music with some historical aspects.

Following a tradition established last year, the 3B Spanish class published its own newspaper, La Isla De Oro put out entirely by the students.

Other interesting activities sponsored by the department included, "Rinse That Blood Off My Toga," a short play performed at a Latin Club meeting, and a French Club field trip to San Francisco to dinner at "Des Alpes" and a performance of Moliere's "Tartuffe" by the American Conservatory Theater.

The Physical Education Departments this year added more activities to the program.

New courses in Girls' P.E. included a modern dance symposium and a rifle class for the Girls' Athletic Association. Modern dance was instituted as a required subject for sophomore girls.

There was also more emphasis on co-educational activities, including volleyball and badminton.

A weight-lifting program was started in the Boys' P.E. Department. New gymnastics equipment has been added to the gym, including parallel bars, two new peg boards and a jump and reach board.

With the rennovation of the Science Building completed, the Home Economics and Industrial Arts Departments were able to offer classes which had been discontinued during remodeling as well as continue several new courses begun last year.

Home Economics was able to resume its classes in beginning and advanced foods. Continuing in its second year was the home management course, which included studies in dating, family relationships, and child care.

As in the past, the beginning and advanced clothing classes modeled their sewn projects for the Spring Girls' Association Fashion Show. Additional clothing projects were modeled at the Senior Mother-Daughter Tea.

Industrial Arts offered technical math, also instituted last year. This subject is taught in collaboration with the Math Department.

Although the department lost several hundred square feet due to the remodeling of the Science Building last year, it was fortunate to have received various types of new equipment, including a helioarc welder, a new hoist for auto shop, and several electrical hand tools.

Sewing is not all serious.

Business Gets New Machines

Mr. Van Sickle tests his students on the key punches.

This year, the Business Department acquired new equipment for the classroom.

A multi-channel-dictation lab was obtained through federal funds; this lab enables the student to use the speed of dictation that he chooses from four different channels.

The Vocational Education Act provided Alameda High with twenty electric typewriters as well as twenty key punches that can be attached to the typewriters.

Retiring Teacher Is Honored

Retiring this year is Mrs. Josephine Van Ogtrop, who has been with the Alameda Unified School District since 1932. In that time, she has taught in continuation schools and commercial subjects at Alameda High.

After attending the University of California, she came directly to A.H.S.

She has traveled to Europe, Mexico, Canada, and the eastern states, and is planning to extend her travel to the Orient after she has retired.

Mrs. Van Ogtrop, who lives with her husband in Walnut Creek, has three grown daughters. She is looking forward to being more active with her husband in their dairy industry in Sacramento County.

The Acorn staff and A.H.S. student body extend our best wishes and a vote of thanks for her years of service to Alameda students.

Mrs. Van Ogtrop flashes a smile while correcting papers.

California Scholarship Federation members have had a year of varied activities.

At meetings, two men from SYNANON spoke to the members about the difficulties of rehabilitating alcoholics and addicts, and an admissions officer from the University of California discussed college entrance problems.

With funds from a candy sale, the club made its annual donation to the American Field Service and a special donation to SYNANON.

The main purpose of the club is tutoring; last year over seventy students were helped by CSF members, who must have at least three A's and two B's in academic subjects preceding the semester of membership.

On April 15 some members attended the CSF Regional Conference in Palo Alto. The general theme was, "The Rate of the Individual in a Mass Society."

This year the Star and Key Club formed a committee to look into the possibility of offering a scholarship to Alameda High students. At press time the committee had recommended to award a scholarship (of approximately fifty dollars), to one or two students. However no final decision was made.

The club attended a picnic in Roberts Park on May 19 and held a money-raising auction of student "Slaves" during Homecoming Week.

AHS Students Receive Many Awards

Boys' and Girls' State Representatives were: Sven Ostling and Diane Warner.

Throughout the past year many students received special honors.

Four Alameda High seniors received Bank of America plaques: Woody Minor, science and mathematics; Kay Wong, fine arts; Diane Warner, liberal arts; and Darlene Fravel, vocational arts fields. Students were selected on the basis of school grades and activities. After being selected for high school competition, the award-winning students went on to district and regional competition.

At press time, Kay Wong and Diane Warner were awarded first and Woody Minor was awarded a third in their respective fields in the district competition.

Eleven other seniors were awarded certificates in many fields in the Bank of America Competition. They were selected by the Bank of America Competition Judging Committee.

Dawn Reed, as the recipient of the Daughters of the American Revolution Award, was given a certificate and pin for her good citizenship in school and community. She was selected by the faculty, counselors, and administrators of AHS. Dawn was also given the opportunity to take a state test, which selects one girl for a D.A.R. state award.

Chuck Dillard, as the recipient of the Christian Athletic Award, received a $300 scholarship and attended a one-week conference at Southern Oregon College in Ashland, Oregon. This award is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club.

Boys' and Girls' State honors, sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, were awarded to Sven Ostling and Diane Warner. Sven attended the Boys' State Conference at Sacramento and Diane went to the Girls' State Conference at the University of California at Davis. Both were chosen from top students who excel in scholastic and leadership ability in their class. Counselors and administrators made the selections.

Daughters of the American Revolution Award winner was Dawn Reed and the Christian Athletic Award winner was Chuck Dillard.

STUDENT LIFE

Student Body Officers Promote

Fall Student Body President Steve Bartley.

The fall student body officers were prime movers in two things during their term. One was the reviving of school spirit and the other was raising money.

They started the first Homecoming Week in the fall to arouse more spirit for the school and its teams. This was achieved by a series of contests, including "Stash the Trash," "The Wishing Well" and "Mr. Irresistable."

Money was gained for the school at the home football games where, for the first time the student body sold refreshments and received the proceeds. The bank balance was further helped by the opening dance, "Wanted," which made more money than any other dance this year.

If the fall officers made money and promoted spirit, then the spring officers spent it and promoted more spirit. Money was spent, lent or given for such things as a new score board in the gym, the model UN, the senior edition of the Oakleaf and Lyceum, a student literary magazine started this spring.

Spirit was helped along by Spirit Week, when various activities included Silence Day, Gold and White Day and Clash Day instituted to help promote spirit.

The 1966-67 term was a busy one for the Administrative Board. During the summer, the fall board planned Homecoming Week, headed by Ermena Vinluan.

The week of March 13th started Spirit Week, which included a clash day, a snob day and a "Mr. and Miss Hello" award. This was organized by the Spring Board and headed by Brooke Fisher.

Student Court Continues

This year was the second year that Alameda High had a Student Court. The purpose of the court was to give the students who had been issued citations a better chance to defend themselves.

There were six justices and a substitute. In order for a hearing to take place, four judges had to be present. Board of Control members issued citations and both the person and the Board of Control member presented their cases before the court.

Mr. Conner was the advisor, although hearings were conducted by the students alone at the bi-monthly meetings.

Music theory, arrangement, form and structure were several of the things that the band and orchestra worked on this past year. Mr. Dominick Vinciguerra and Mr. Carlton Hanson, the band and orchestra instructors, feel that students could do better in their playing if they know what goes into a sheet of music.

For the first time this year, the band played at all of the student body meetings during the fall semester. During the spring semester the stage band took over the main part of the student meetings.

The full band, orchestra and stage band in addition to the choral group under Mrs. Carol Cederleaf performed at the Pops Concert on April 13, 1967.

The orchestra played selections at the Senior Play and the All School Play.

Girls Glee at practice.

Parts of the Vocal Ensemble, Girls Glee, Concert Choral and Choir took part in the Christmas Pageant, Hayward City School Choral Festival, Claremont Hotel Christmas Show, Cal State Festival and the East Bay Youth Symphony. In all of the productions during the year, well known musical numbers were used. Many of the programs were sponsored by various community groups.

At the end of the year, two musical awards are given to the two outstanding people in the music department. Both are cash awards which are given to further musical learning. The Howard Eastward Memorial Music Fund Award is given to the outstanding students of Junior level or lower, who has given the most for the music department. The same type of award is given to the outstanding Senior. This is the Hazel B. Hunter Musical Award.

Oakleaf Tries Innovations

The Oakleaf staff did some new things this year. Staff members worked with different arrangements of the front page and with new type styles, used throughout the paper.

A major change in the front page moved the picture up into the left-hand corner. In order to do this, the headline was moved over to make room, giving the paper a different look. Boldface type was used to denote special statements or noteworthy ideas. Other kinds of type were used in an experimental way throughout the paper.

At the end of the first semester, the Oakleaf had a change of advisors, when Mrs. Corinne Bird, who had held the post for two and a half years, took a leave of absence. Mrs. Lynn Moyer took over for the last semester of the school year.

Mrs. Bird was the first semester advisor.

This is the first year that the Alameda Acorn staff has put out a supplement to the regular book. After the book was sent to the printers the staff started to work on the supplement, which held pictures and copy on all of the spring events which did not go into the larger book.

The editors this year were Bev Rose, copy editor, and Ken Petranak, layout editor. Mrs. Judy Thompson was the editorial staff advisor.

Miss Madge Holland, the ad staff advisor, worked with Acorn business problems. The ad staff went out during school time to sell ads to help finance the book.

Rah-Rah Girls Cheer Us On

The fall outfits for the yell leaders were gold wool coulottes, white mock turtle neck sweaters with gold stripes on the sleeves and the bottom of the sweaters, and white block letters. The pom-pon girls' outfits included gold wrap around jumpers, gold and white gingham-checked blouses and white block letters.

Clinics were held again this year after Pep Club meetings to teach yells and help with original routines for prospective yell leaders or pom-pon girls.

This year during basketball season, noon rallies were held and knee pillows were provided for the yell leaders at games. During Homecoming Week the yell leaders and pom-pon girls were auctioned to raise money for the student body fund.

The Spirit of Spring

Headed by Peggy Dunn, the spring yell leaders succeeded in boosting spirit during the basketball and baseball season with many innovations.

This was the first year in which we had a Spirit March before the basketball game with Encinal. Also, a "Bomb the Jets" Day was added to the Spirit Week to boost attendance at the game.

With the aid of Pep Club, it was possible for the yell leaders this spring to purchase their uniforms without personal cost. They were white, mock turtle-neck sweaters with two bands of gold on each sleeve and the waist. To complete the outfit, the assistant yell leaders wore gold culottes and the head wore white.

". . . We are Alameda's delegation. . . ."

The pom-pon girls assisted the yell leaders in raising spirit by performing at the student body meetings, noon rallies and attending the games. This spring's head pom-pon girl was Marcia Olson.

Their outfits consisted of gold jumpers and white blouses with 3/4 length sleeves piped with gold.

AHS, A "Wonderland by Night"

Talented actors in the Junior Prom skit.

Planters of roses and French cafe tables lined the sides of the gym February 24, the night of the Junior Prom presented by the class of 1968. Couples danced in front of a backdrop of the San Francisco Bay Bridge used to carry out the theme, "Wonderland by Night."

At 10:30 P.M., the crowd gathered to watch as Mr. Bell and Manager Pat Holden crowned Gina Broadbent as the queen of the prom. Her court surrounded her as she sat on her throne with the traditional bouquet of red roses presented by Co-Manager Pam Wilmoth.

Carol Willett, Owen Jones, Maureen Gamba, and Jim Hart take a breather.

Wait Till the Midnight Hour...

The Sophomore Class of 1969 presented the Soph Hop, "The Midnight Hour," Nov. 18. "The Jungle" rock-and-roll band played for the girl-ask-boy dance, and the traditional candy leis were worn by the boys.

The main feature of the decorations was a large cardboard clock which hung from the ceiling.

The fine arts departments were combined to produce the annual Christmas Pageant, which was presented to the student body and to the public.

"Where E'er the Sun" Presented

Written and directed by Mr. Lloyd Sisler, this year's 27th annual Christmas Pageant, "Where E'er The Sun," depicted Christmas-time in foreign lands.

Included in the program were scenes portraying the Christmas life in Spain, using original costumes, and Ireland, featuring a dance of the leprechans. A Japanese scene showed a dance in a tea garden, and a Holland dance used authentic Dutch costumes.

A Viet Nam setting was presented to demonstrate the Christmas life of a poor native boy. Contrasting the old with the new, both an old-English tableau and a "mod" English setting were offered. Also presented were the traditional Pageant Hannukah and Santa's scenes.

Assisting Mr. Sisler in the production were Mrs. Julie Blunden, choreography, Mrs. Carol Cederleaf, choral groups, and Mr. Carlton Hanson, orchestration. Miss Edna Reichmuth supervised the scenery production and Mrs. Inez Whitton and Mrs. Betty Tillotson were in charge of costumes. This year's student director was Craig Jessup.

The Nativity Scene characters were portrayed by: Jim Royer (Joseph), Dawn Reed (Mary), and George Harell (Angel).

"Where E're the Sun" presented Christmas as it was celebrated in many countries. Chryl Gron, Carol Sato and Stephanie Zuras are representing the Orient.

Students on the Move

Alameda High had a busy year for exchange students. Mike Griesi came to Alameda from Italy, Richard Davis went to Sweden during the summer of 1966 and Becky Wilmoth went to England for the school year.

Mike came from the town of Lavello in Italy, arriving in San Francisco on August 19, 1966. He lived with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brownson and their children Dave, Cris and Nancy.

Mike has learned many things from Americans and taught some also. Says Mike about Alameda, "I like it because it is a nice residential area with access to a metropolitan area."

In June of 1966 Richard Davis went on a trip to Alameda's sister city, Lindingo, Sweden. The trip was sponsored by the cities of Lindingo and Alameda.

During Richard's time in Sweden, he stayed for five weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Carl-Erik Lind and their three sons Bjorn, Bo and Gunnar. While living with the Linds, Rich was very much part of the family. The last week was spent with Mr. and Mrs. Gustafson and their daughter Birgitta.

Becky Wilmoth, sponsored by American Field Service as was Mike, went to Cheshire, England, on August 18, 1966. She stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Carter and their four children Sharon, Kenneth, Barry and Jason. She traveled all over England and spent some time in London.

Says Becky, "Going to school in England is a lot different from going to AHS, and missing my senior year is sad; but if I had the opportunity I wouldn't hesitate to do it again. Living with a family in another country for a year is an experience that no amount of travel can ever equal."

Boards of Control Work With

This year, the Board of Control worked in conjunction with the Student Court toward giving students fair trials. Both the person cited and the Board of Control member who issued the citation presented their cases before the Student Court.

The Board also continued its duties of controlling conduct at the student body meetings and keeping the school area free from litter.

The Beat Goes On

"Wanted" was the theme of the Ad Board's opening dance of the school year.

Five other dances were held throughout the year. Most of these were sponsored by different clubs, including "Mexican Hat Dance" sponsored by the Girls' Association; "Midnight Hour," the Soph Hop; "Wonderland by Night," the Junio. Prom; "Kaleidoscope," sponsored by the "S" Club; and the Block "A"s dance, "Pop Top Hop Side II."

Seniors don't always rule!

Vince Sedillo lives up to the title of "Mr. Irresistible."

For the first time, the Ad Board sponsored a Homecoming Week, which was held from November 9-14.

The week began with the kick-off tea and included a slave day, a "Mr. Irresistible" contest, a "Wishing Well" contest won by the seniors, and a "Stash-the-Trash" contest, which was won by the Junior Class.

The half-time event for the Encinal-Alameda game was the crowning of the Homecoming Queen and princesses.

The court, Barby Shanafelt, Sheri Lemmon, and Bev Rogers were crowned at the football game along with the queen, Janice Barrow.

Fall officers decorate for the GA dance.

The fall officers of Girls' Association planned many activities for their theme, "Acapulco—1922."

They began the semester with the traditional freshman reception, when the freshmen were introduced to GA by their senior sisters. Entertainment and refreshments were included in the opening activity.

The "Mexican Hat Dance," which was held in October, was decorated with sombreros and a brightly-colored piñata which hung from the center of the ceiling.

At Christmas time, the fall GA officers sponsored a party for the special classes at Porter School. Some of the students who performed in the Christmas pageant danced for the children, who were given treats by Santa Claus.

"Acapulco—1922" and "Carnaby Street" were the themes chosen respectively by the fall and spring officers of the Girls' Association.

The fall officers opened their term with the Freshman Reception, followed by the GA "Mexican Hat Dance" in October. Fall term GA meetings included a Wendy Ward fashion showing of Christmas holiday party fashions.

In the spring, officers organized a cake sale, a fashion show, and the Senior Mother-Daughter Tea. They also changed the tradition of wearing scarves with middies, choosing lime green print dresses while the GA Board wore identical print blouses with solid-colored skirts.

Seniors Bid a Last Farewell

Starting the year off right, the Senior Class of 1967 unveiled their burgundy senior jackets at the first student body meeting. Their first major activity of the year was the Senior Play, "Arsenic and Old Lace," presented October 28 and 29 starring Nancy Long, Patsy Chavez, Jay Martin and Steve Bartley.

The Seniors won money for the class in the Big Wish Contest during Homecoming Week. In the spring, the Rhinoceros head was awarded to them for selling the most tickets to the All-School Play, which starred such seniors as Barbara Fore and Jay Martin. The class also received $5.00 for their prize-winning Senior Spirit Banner.

The annual Powderpuff Game was won by the senior Mamas by a score of 6-0 with Sue Lippi making the winning touchdown.

MANY SENIORS WON HONORS

Valedictorian and salutatorian of the Class of 1967 were Diane Warner and Bob Meadows. Dawn Reed was awarded the DAR Good Citizen Award, and Chuck Dillard was made the recipient of the Christian Athletic Award. The Bank of America Award Winners were Diane Warner, Woody Minor, Kay Wong and Darlene Fravel. California State Scholarships were presented to Dana Hootman, Evelyn Hosford, Heather MacKenzie, Woody Minor and Bob Ward.

Becky Wilmoth, in addition to being a National Merit Scholarship finalist, spent her senior year as a foreign exchange student to England. Taking her place at A.H.S. was Mike Griesi, the American Field Service student from Italy.

The spring senior activities, including the Senior Picnic on May 29, Senior Hat and Sock Day and the Senior Meeting of June 1, the Senior Ball on June 9, the Senior Banquet on June 13, and Graduation on June 15, will be covered in the supplement.

In Senior Class Play,

Mr. Sisler keeps a watchful eye on the progress of the play.

Elderberry Wine Gets a New Twist

"Arsenic and Old Lace," a three act comedy by Joseph Kesselring, was presented Oct. 28 and 29 by the Senior Class of 1967.

Directed by Mr. Lloyd Sisler and assisted by student director Dawn Reed, the play revolves about the sweetly homicidal mania of the old maid Brewster girls of Brooklyn, Abbie and Martha, who are extremely well thought of and charitable. They have three nephews. Teddy, who thinks he is Teddy Roosevelt, is amusingly cracked. He digs locks for the Panama Canal in the cellar and constantly charges up the stairs blowing a bugle for the taking of San Juan Hill.

Mortimer, a drama critic and the only sane person in the family, is in love with the minister's daughter next door. He discovers a corpse in the window seat and finds out that his aunts, with humanitarian motives, invite lonely old men to their home and give them elderberry wine spiked with "a teaspoon of arsenic, a half teaspoon of strychnine, and just a pinch of cyanide." They bury the men in Teddy's Panama Canal.

Nephew Jonathan arrives while Mortimer wonders what to do about his aunts. Jonathan, a more direct homicidal maniac wanted by the police, is disguised as Boris Karloff. He traveles accompanied by his personal facelifter and plastic surgeon, Dr. Herman Einstein.

Eventually, Mortimer manages to arrange to have his aunts taken to a private "home." When the manager of Happydale arrives, the gentle ladies serve him the elderberry wine and the curtain falls.

Stuart Watts and Sandi Townley were manager and co-manager of the play.

The Class of 1968 has produced many outstanding students this year. Among them are Craig Jessup, who won the lead in the all-school play "Rhinoceros," and Gary Dettmer and Steve Gremminger, who also had major roles. Excelling in swimming were Larry Lozensky and Gary Gamble; Chris Speier displayed his skill in basketball and baseball. Also, Carol Roberts and Sheryl Hiatt were chosen as finalists in the exchange-student program of the American Field Service.

On the night of February 24, 1967, the Junior Prom, "Wonderland by Night," was presented, using San Francisco nightlife as a theme. Gina Broadbent reigned over the evening as Queen.

In conjunction with Homecoming Week, the Junior Class won the "Stash the Trash" contest and was presented an engraved garbage can.

Carol King, George Hawkins, Joan Fontaine, and Steve Cochrane find time to rest their feet at the Junior Prom, "Wonderland by Night."

Sophomores Show Promise

Demonstrating their prowress in at least two sports were Eric Cross, Dennis Peterson, Kirby Eaton, Barry Murphy, Mike Amos, Ben Garfinkle, and Bill Yarborough. Also winning honors for A.H.S. was diver Roger Rodd.

Another outstanding sophomore is Carolyn Corn who, with the exception of one B-plus, has received straight A's throughout her high-school career. Among her subjects this year have been advanced algebra and geometry.

This year the class of 1970 made a big hit with the other classes when they refrained from yelling when asked to help out in the school yells. Their spirit improved considerably, however, during games when they unsuccessfully tried outshouting upperclassmen.

Not to be beaten, though, they took first place in the PTA membership drive. They also won a "Rhinoceros" head when they took first place in advance-sale tickets for the all-school play.

ORGANIZATIONS

Interact car swabbies included Hunter Crandall and Bill Brown.

Jay Martin and Ron Watson listen intently at a noon poetry reading.

The Humanities Forum had many lively discussions lead by Miss Madge Holland and Miss Mary Francis Claggett, the faculty advisors.

Alameda High's first literary magazine, the Lyceum, was sponsored this year by the Humanities Forum. Students contributed their prose and poetry to the magazine, which was distributed in May.

Limited to juniors and seniors, the Humanities Forum is a group interested in analyzing books and poetry. Weekly noon poetry readings were an added attraction of the club this year. With Heather MacKenzie as chairman, the students presented their own works to interested audiences.

The Humanities Forum also contributed money to Pegasus, a student poetry center that sends poets to read their works at different high schools. Five poets came to A.H.S. to give poetry readings.

In addition, the Forum also sponsored a candy sale with the proceeds going toward student movie-making projects.

Forum Publishes Lyceum

Pep Club Sponsors Clinics

The Officers of the Pep Club for the past year were: Daphne Harmola, sergeant at arms; Nancy Adams, song leader; Mary Shanafelt, publicity chairman; Carolyn Marberry, publicity chairman; Nancy Olson, president; Betsy Smith, recording secretary; Rhonda Hayes, financial secretary. Not pictured is Sandy Stefani, vice president.

Marsha Olsen and Becky West perform their pompon routines at one of Pep Clubs many clinics.

Clinics, sponsored by the Pep Club, have helped many students learn to become yell leaders or pompon girls. If a student wishes to try out for yell leader or pompon girl, months before the tryouts he or she is able to attend a clinic and gain help and constructive criticism on routines from a past or present yell leader or pompon girl.

Also, if they wish to try out, they need sixty Pep Club points which they obtain by attending games, meetings and by selling candy, as in the Pep Club's candy sale and sucker sales.

The Pep Club has proved to be a school service club, for it, along with the Ad Board and student body officers, has helped to promote school spirit. Also, the club has paid for both the spring and fall yell leader and pompon girl uniforms.

Marilyn Reynolds demonstrates her yell at the mock tryouts for yell leaders.

What's That I Hear Now?

Mrs. Carol Cederleaf, the Crescendo Club's advisor, directs Preston Cross and Dan Cowdey while they accompany the Girls' Glee Club in a song.

The Crescendo Club's annual candy sale in February started off this year's activities for the club. The money earned from the sale was spent to buy music and equipment to better the Music Department.

A field trip to the Oakland Youth Chamber Orchestra Concert took place in December. Members who attended the concert heard Aztec music, which was performed on sticks, lutes and drums. Cellist Michele Miland represented A.H.S. in the Youth Chamber Orchestra.

The Crescendo Club has also sponsored a Pops Concert, presented to the student body on April 13.

The Annual Spring Concert took place on May 19, and following this was the club's annual picnic on May 25.

The Members of the Cresceno Club come from the band, orchestra, and vocal classes, as pictured on the left. From the band (top photo), Gary Gamble, Craig Jessup, Ted Jones, Dick Jaykins and Curt Reichert. From the orchestra (middle photo), Darlene Fravel, Linda Lozensky, Jeffrey Sosnick and Carol Vander Roest. From the Girls' Glee (bottom photo), Chris Doty and Terry Minifie.

Club Joins Junior Classical League

This year the Latin Club had a new sponsor, Mrs. Jane Daily, who brought new ideas and new spirit into the club.

For the first time, the group joined the Junior Classical League, a national organization composed of local classical clubs in junior and senior high schools. Its purpose is to promote appreciation of the arts and literature of ancient Rome and Greece. In March, the A.H.S. Club sent delegates to the state meeting of the J.C.L. held at San Jose State.

Other activities the members participated in were "mock Olympics," where Roman games were played, and a play about Julius Ceasar, entitled, "Wash the Blood Off My Toga."

"S" Club Attends Conference

Once again the "S" Club attended the annual conference for its fellow clubs in the southwest regions of the United States. At the conference, held at Asilomar, the weekend of April 8, the members of the "S" Club learned of the activities of other "S" Clubs and how to better their own club.

Another of the many activities in which the "S" Club participated was a Christmas party for the special class at Otis School. Two weeks before the party, the "S" Club, along with the G.A., collected used toys in a large stocking located in the lobby. At the party, Santa Jeff Carr, distributed the toys to the children.

In March, the "S" Club held an Alumni Reunion Salad Bar at the home of President Linda Collischon. Part of April was spent working on the club's annual dance, "Kaleidoscope," held on April 14.

This year, once again, the "S" Club had a joint fashion show with the E.H.S. "S" Club in May at Lum School.

Officers of the "S" Club this year were, Beth Pippo, recording secretary; Sheryl Hiatt, vice president; Linda Collischon, president; Sydney Kapchan, corresponding secretary; and Suzanne Boni, financial secretary.

Interact and "S" Club Have Joint Car Wash

A joint car wash with the Alameda High "S" Club started out the year's activities for the Interact Club. After the car wash, there was a barbecue for all of the members of the clubs who worked at the home of Bill Short.

The Interact Club sponsored by the Rotary Club advised by Mr. Ashley Jones, is open to boys of the 10th, 11th and 12th grades.

The Club aided the community this spring by marching in the Muscular Distrophy Drive. They also assisted the American Field Service Committee by selling the majority of the tickets for the Powder Puff football game.

Ski Club Has Varied Activities

A car wash was the first activity of the Ski Club, and money was raised for their future trips. After the car wash, the club met at Glen Henderson's house for a barbeque and waterskiing.

On December 19 the club took its first expedition to Boreal Ridge. Following the new year, they made trips to Slide Mountain and Yosemite. Throughout the year, the Ski Club has sponsored slide shows and professional ski movies shown at noon in room 112.

Courtesy Board Assists Visitors

The duties of the Courtesy Board members began the first day of school, when they showed the freshmen to their advisories. Soon after this, they sold book covers and helped on the Homecoming Tea.

Various other activities of the year included a party at Mrs. Helen Hoeksema's house for all Courtesy Board members, the making of Christmas decorations for the teacher's desks, and the serving of the Block "A" dinner. Besides these activities, the official hostesses of AHS assisted visitors during class time, and lead the eighth graders on a tour of the school.

One of the more interesting activities the Spanish Club participated in was a trip to San Francisco where they visited Mission Dolores, Mission Park, and finally dined at the Hotel du Midi.

The French Club also went on a field trip to San Francisco this year. While in San Francisco, the members had dinner at a French Restaurant, and after dinner attended a play, "Tartuffe," by Moliere, at the Geary Theatre.

The Math Club, a newly formed club at A.H.S., has had many activities this year. They have gone on field trips to the Planetarium in San Francisco, and to Cal State at Hayward for a Computer Lab. Other activities included math tournaments and assisting the C.S.F. in providing tutors in mathematical subjects.

Group Has Father-Daughter Night

Receiving their Block "A's" at the G.A.A.'s fall spread were: Donna Dorthick, Linda Kamby, Sandy Lemmon, Pat Murphy, Kathy Pingree, and Dawn Reed.

A Father-Daughter Night was the first activity of the year for the Women's Block "A."

Volleyball, relay races, and a dance contest were among the many activities the girls and their fathers participated in. All of the members of the G.A.A. and their fathers were invited. There were also three legged races, balloon races and a dance contest was won by Mr. John Albers, with Mr. David George coming in second.

The Women's Block "A" had a sucker sale on May 22, in addition to their annual decal and pompon sales in the spring and fall.

Did you know there were pyramids in Alameda?

Faculty and Block "A" Tie

One of the many activities of the Block "A" was the "Stash the Trash" contest, which the club sponsored during Homecoming Week. For this, they publicized the contest by painting and decorating the trash cans.

The traditional Block "A" basketball game between the men's faculty and the Block "A" members, held in January, ended in a tie. During half time, a pie-eating contest was held between Mr. Vernon Lowry, Dr. Gunther Gates, Mr. Grant Robinson, and Mr. Dave Fairfield, who was the winner.

Other activities of the Block "A" included a dinner at the Acapulco, and their annual dance, Pop Top Hop Side II.

The four pie-eaters go to work.

Chess Club Sponsors Tournament

Chemistry Club, Chess Club and the 3R's all took field trips this year.

A field trip to the Lawrence Radiation Lab on Nov. 4 was the first activity for the Chemistry Club. While visiting the lab, the members of the club saw the Bevetron, a nuclear particle excellerator.

A tour of the C and H Sugar Refinery at Crockett was the club's next big activity. At the plant, the members saw movies and then they toured the plant. At the finish of the tour, all of the members received a souvenir of different types of sugar.

In May, the club visited the Standard Oil Refinery for an all day field trip.

The Chess Club had twelve matches with other schools this year, they won four, tied two, and lost the remaining six. The dues, which the members pay at the beginning of the year, go to buy chess sets, books, and timing clocks. Again this year, Alameda High's Chess Club sponsored the Annual High School Open Chess Tournament which was held at A.H.S.

An excursion to the Future Teacher's Conference at Chabot Junior College, and their annual picnic during Easter vacation at Tilden Park were some of the varied activies in which the 3R's Club participated.

The club made the name tags for the faculty for open house, and assisted the Porter School PTA mothers in conducting a study hall held before and after school for the Porter students.

Key Club Participates in Community Activities

Marching for the March of Dimes and the Cerebral Palsy fund were two of the activities performed by the Key Club this year.

The Key Club is a service club which is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, and is open to sophomore, junior, and senior boys.

Another activity of the year included the weekly luncheons with the Kiwanis Club; two boys represented the Key Club each week.

Model U.N. Represents Malaysia

Alyse Enyart and Heather MacKenzie confer at the conference.

Model U.N. activities for 1966-67 centered on preparation for and participation in the annual assembly held in February at the University of California at Berkeley.

Several months of preparation involved learning about Malaysia and the rules and procedure of the United Nations.

In addition, much time and effort was spent on fund raising projects to help pay the expenses of delegates at the Berkeley assembly. Various activities ranging from a candy sale to the "Lovely Legs Contest" were employed as fund raisers.

During the many sessions, which involved both social activities and study sessions, a good understanding of the United Nations and international politics was gained by club members.

R.O.T.C. Visits Fort Ord

The evening of February 17 found thirty-five cadets from the R.O.T.C. units of Encinal and Alameda High schools participating in night manuevers in the hills and gullies of Fort Ord. The following day these cadets joined the rest of their unit and were conducted on a tour of Ford Ord.

Other R.O.T.C. activities included practicing and drilling for the Veteran's Day Parade on November 11. Two first place awards were taken by the R.O.T.C. at that event.

After Christmas vacation, a new R.O.T.C. program was started at Encinal High School. Richard Davis became the head of both schools' units, which were compounded into a brigade. He was given the title of Brigade Commander.

The rifle team won all their rifle matches, and in May they competed against other high schools from Idaho, Nevada, Washington and California.

Usherettes Work at School Functions

Red Cross Has Cupcake Sale

Outstanding Record For Tough Season

As predicted at the start of the season, AHS finished third in the ACAL behind Berkeley and Richmond. The team moved with the ball very well but in crucial games found it difficult to score. However, a 7-2 record was compiled, an outstanding record in a strong league.

The schedule and scores were as follows:

Alameda	14	(practice) St. Francis	13
Alameda	35	San Leandro	0
Alameda	6	Richmond	26
Alameda	0	Berkeley	16
Alameda	38	Encinal	0
Alameda	33	DeAnza	6
Alameda	13	El Cerrito	12
Alameda	35	Pacific	6

Mike Kotte tackles a Berkeley speedster.

Varsity Members Receive Honors

At the annual awards dinner given by the Eagles and Sigma Beta Alpha Men's Club, Mike Kotte was named the "Most Valuable Player" of the 1966 season. The decision, based upon ability, spirit, and good sportsmanship, was made by the team members.

Members of the All East Bay Team from A.H.S., named by the East Bay Prep Writers' Association from 65 area schools, were Chuck Dillard, tackle, and Dan Archibald, linebacker. Both were unanimous defensive choices.

Archibald and Dillard also made the All ACAL Team with Archibald a unanimous choice for both offense and defense, Dillard selected by a unanimous vote to play defense. Steve Williams, Vince Sedillo, Mike Kotte, Pat King, and Bill Short received All ACAL honorable mention.

Executing a punt is Chuck Dillard, unanimous defensive choice for All East Bay and All ACAL Teams.

Dan Archibald, voted All East Bay and All ACAL.

One of the many AHS players who received ACAL honorable mention awards, Mike Kotte.

As Usual, 38-0

The AHS varsity football team, playing in their twelfth annual "Big Game," beat Encinal for the tenth time in the series. This year's score being 38-0.

Scoring high points included:

1. The opening kickoff was taken by Gary Fascilla and run back 74 yards for the first score.
2. After the recovery of an Encinal fumble by Steve May, Bill Short ran the ball four yards to the end zone. With the kick of the extra point by Mike Amos the score read 13-0.
3. Mike Kotte then took a pitch out and ran five yards for the third score.
4. Again Mike Kotte took the ball and ran forty-three yards for his second score of the game.
5. After an interception and run by Mike Amos, Bill Short carried the ball over from the three.
6. The final score was made by Gary Fascilla, who rolled out six yards for his second score of the game. The extra point was kicked by Mike Amos, making the final score 38-0.

After the victory over Encinal, Coach Forrest Klein was presented with the winner's trophy, given by the Alameda Chamber of Commerce.

Encinal Coach, John Marberry, assesses the damage.

J.V.'s Finish Without a Loss

The 1966 Alameda High junior varsity football team compiled an unbeatable record. Headed by coaches Dennis Hennessee and Leroy Bernadou, the team finished at the top of the league wtih an 8-0 season record.

The team found no difficulty in beating any team, as they totaled 343 points while their opponents scored only 19 points against them.

Many outstanding players were on this team. Paul McBride was chosen most valuable back. Playing quarterback, he called the signals in all eight of the games. Mike Amos, who caught seven touchdown passes while playing end, was named the most valuable lineman. The big yard gainer was Eric Cross, who along with Gary Fascilla ran back kicks four times in one game. Other standouts were Paul Hahn, a tackle, Rich Baker, an end, and Jim Royer, a linebacker.

Soph-Frosh Show Good Material

The 1966 Alameda soph-frosh football team had good material and played well, but could not come up in the winning bracket.

The team compiled a 2-5-1 record, beating Berkeley, 7-6, El Cerrito, 25-13, and tieing De Anza, 6-6. In the Berkeley game on the last play, Charles Rhodes intercepted a pass and ran 70 yards for a touchdown, giving the Hornets an extra margin of victory.

Coach William Thompson thinks this was the best group of freshmen he has seen in several years. Many will be returning for varsity and J.V. action.

Varsity Has

The 1966 Hornet varsity basketball team, coached by Marvin Pearson, had one of the better years for basketball at AHS. The Hornets beat cross-town rival Encinal twice, 55-41, and 58-38, and also upset Fremont High School, the fifth ranked team in the state, 58-54.

At the Monterey Invitational Tournament, the Hornets won both their games, beating Seaside, 60-31, and Monterey, 68-46. Following are the scores from this season:

J.V.'s Stop Berkeley's Jinx

Coach Leland Stanford's 1966-67 junior varsity basketball team had a very good year considering the competition in the ACAL. The team rolled to a 13-10 season's record, including a win over Berkeley's junior varsity team for the first time in over 10 years, 51-46.

Bob Bernal led the team in scoring, while Bob Rulofson and Dennis Peterson were strong on defense. In the San Leandro game, Bernal lifted the team to victory by sinking five free throws in a row, even with the disadvantage of one of the lenses in his glasses missing.

Mel Arnerich, who switched back and forth from J.V.'s to varsity, Gary Fascilla, George Throckmorton, Eric Cross, Paul Idle, Dave Bussell, Dave Schmaing, and John Zuras were outstanding in J.V. action. Coach Stanford was pleased with this year's play, and thinks this squad was the best in many years.

Dave Bussell blocks a shot while Paul Idle and Bob Rolofson look on.

Frosh Basketballers Gain Experience

The 1966-67 AHS frosh basketball team had a poor season as far as league standings go, but members received needed experience and a look at how the high school game is played.

The team won five games and lost 20. They were coached by Mr. David Kracl, who gave the members a good foundation in basketball skills to work with in the future.

Showing by their first year of high school play that they are ready for junior varsity and varsity play next year were Mickey Caldwell, Jerry Carr, John Pearson, Charles Rhodes, Dave Mikami, and John Dutcher.

Greg Roschitsch goes high up for a rebound against DeAnza. Mickey Caldwell (40) and Dave Mikami (14) look on.

Swim Team Heads for

Outstanding runner Mark Donnell finishes a race with a final burst of speed.

With the excellent coaching of Mr. Ashley Jones, the 1967 swim team hoped to win the A.C.A.L. championship, and looked forward to competing and winning many other events.

Along with the A.C.A.L. championships held May 13, the team participated in the C.I.F. Division I at Chabot College on May 20, and the N.C.S. championships in Santa Rosa on May 27.

As usual the team was outstanding and had many excellent swimmers, including Ted Reyburn, John Benedick, Robert Rodd, Larry Lozensky, Skip Voves, Owen Jones, Maltbie Napoleon, Gary Gamble, Tony Mazzi, Tim Seagren, Micky Caldwell, Jim Coe, Lance Seely and Steve Payne.

The A.H.S. track team got off to a good start, with Mark Donnell setting two school records, one in the 880-yard run, the other in the mile. Head Coach William Thompson and Assistant Coach Dave Kracl had the team in excellent condition at the start of the season, which saw many meets cancelled due to heavy spring rains.

Outstanding team members were Jim Morrison, a high jumper; Bob Lau, outstanding in sprints and the broad jump; Rey Corona and Walt Gordinier in the two-mile run; Steve Hammitt, shot put; and Hyland Morrow, pole vault and broad jump.

Spring sports season results will appear in the Acorn supplement.

Freshman Tom Hui heads toward finish of the two-mile run.

All Teams Receiving Good

Alameda High's 1967 varsity baseball team, being one of the best teams in recent years, was picked to win the A.C.A.L. by other league coaches at the start of the season. If the team proves its ability, Coach Leroy Bernadou feels that they should win.

In the early season play Pat Clark and Al Thomas led the team at the plate, hitting consistantly in almost every game. Greg Orton and Bruce Robles proved to be outstanding pitchers, Orton pitching a no hit-no run game, but losing his bid for a perfect game when an infield error made it possible for a runner to reach first base. Mel Arnerich and Chuck Dillard have also been playing good ball and will help the team toward winning.

The 1967 tennis team, coached by Mr. John McMillon, was expected to have difficulty in beating San Leandro and Berkeley, but should finish in the top three of the A.C.A.L. In early season action San Leandro seemed to be the team to beat. The team played in fourteen tournaments this season, some being played at Krusi, Washington, and Franklin Parks. Of the team, Ron Watson, Larry Pruitt, Steve Albright, Gary Dettmer and Gary Popper should see the most action.

At the start of the season, Coach Marvin Pearson's golf team had high hopes of winning the A.C.A.L. The team competed in some 30 tournaments, four of which were A.C.A.L. meets at Tilden Park Golf Course, Richmond Country Club, Lake Chabot Golf Course, and Alameda Golf Links. Frank Jacopetti, Dan Carter, Brent Wong, Fred Cunningham and Brian Damant are the teams' top five players, Jacopetti being one of the league's long ball hitters.

Complete results for the season will appear in the Acorn supplement.

On Your Mark... Get

The Alameda High School Cross Country Team, headed by Coach Leland Stanford, was not as successful as was hoped, but stands very good chances in the future. This year's team was composed of a great many underclassmen; in losing they gained much experience.

In a poll given to all cross country team members at the end of the season, Walt Gordinier was voted "Most Outstanding Runner," "Most Improved" was Rey Corona, and "Most Inspirational" was Ernie Imura. "Most Outstanding Runner" of the senior class was Mark Donnell. Receiving the same honor for juniors was Dan Kreiss. Mike Wallace took sophomore honors.

Practice was held every day during sixth period and after school. Team members ran 50 miles per week on the average at Joaquin Miller Park in the Oakland Hills.

Mamas Win in Nick of Time

The greater Mamas, headed by Sue Lippi, who scored with one second left in the game, gained their 5th giant Powder Puff, beating the babies by the score of 6-0 in the 6th game in the history of Powder Puff football.

The game, viewed by some 700 people, was held at Thompson Field on Friday, Mar. 17, to benefit the American Field Service.

The winning Mamas were coached by Kip Nelson (head coach), Steve Mills, Bob Weidlich, Mike Kotte, and Craig McDonald. The team captains were Sue Lipp and Nancy Kniskern.

In 1966, for the first time in Alameda High School history, there was a girls' swim team. The team was coached by David Fairfield, who through many hours of practice and training, brought the girls to four successive victories.

The team did not participate in league swimming, as one has not been formed. However, spectator attendance was very good. In the future this should prove to be a major sport at AHS.

The team included Karen Roper, Barbara Hull, Betty Laird, Linda Stambaugh, Bobby Lou Lefevere, June Amaya, Janet Barry, Debbie Wallace, Becky West, Kathy Giomi, Carol Willett, Karla Klinkenburg, Shirley Schacht, Julie Evatt, Georgene Nelson, Barbara Funk, Gail Seagren, Kathy Voves, Sally Nimitz, Nancy Kniskern, Norma Winterbauer, Laurie Pollard, Laurie Thomas, Nancy Luozak, Pam Orr, Jill Shaw, Jan Paden, Mary Umland, Vicki Wake, Diane Walker, Janis Winey, Marcia Sass, and Bev Copeland.

A Tie?

The annual Faculty-Block "A" basketball frolic ended in a tie, the final score reading 15-15. Officials saw plenty of action as 14 fouls were called against the faculty and 12 against the Block A.

Dennis Hennessee of the faculty and Pat Dresser of the Block A tied for scoring honors with six points each. No one player scored more than one field goal and the game was decided almost entirely on free throws.

Block "A" team members included Dan Archibald, Al Thomas, Chuck Dillard, Pat Dresser, Mike Kotte, Owen Jones, Kip Nelson, Steve Williams, Steve May, Steve Mills, Dave Britton, and Tim Seagren.

G.A.A. Has Busy Year

The Girls' Athletic Association of Alameda High School is an organization which gives girls the opportunity to advance in physical education and take part in various sports not given in P.E.

In the fall, the G.A.A. sponsored a pencil sale, a car wash that made $170 and, for the first time, a Father-Daughter Night. At this event girls could participate with their fathers in relay races, volleyball and badminton games. This activity was a big success and will become an annual event.

Three "play days" were scheduled for the year. On "play days" other schools are invited to Alameda High to participate in various sports.

In the spring they had a fudge sale, and a pen sale, donated to the American Field Service, and scheduled another car wash.

The G.A.A. participates in many special sports such as bowling at the Alameda Bowl, archery at Thompson Field, riflery in the R.O.T.C. rifle range and fencing. They also have advanced classes in volleyball, basketball, tumbling, softball, a slim trim exercise class, modern dance and badminton.
